

We are always looking for unconventional thinkers, who like to implement their expertise hands-on at international clients.

Support and consult together with us Global Player regarding exciting topics like Instant Payments, Blockchain and Cryptography. Innovative solutions, highly qualified experts and complex software have been distinguishing us with our customers for more than 20 years. Become part of our team today!

For our department “Marketing & Sales“ we are looking for a
TRAINEE/STUDENT TRAINEE MARKETING & SALES (m/f/d)

YOUR TASKS

- assistance in the creation of sales concepts
- operational support for all sales- and marketing-related activities
- editorial activity (customer mailings, website, press releases)
- market analyses
- maintenance of our CRM system
- assistance in the planning, organization and holding of fairs, events or customer visits

YOUR PROFILE

- studies in business administration, business informatics, computer science, media design or a comparable training
- high level of initiative and ability to work independently
- over-average commitment and ability to work under pressure
- fluently spoken and written English

OUR OFFER

- challenging tasks with a high level of practical relevance
- flexible working hours
- collegial and highly-professional team
- flat hierarchies and short communication paths

An internationally oriented field of activity, international customers as well as an attractive salary package are waiting for you. If you want to contribute to the success of our company in a friendly team, please send your application documents indicating your salary expectations and your earliest possible entry date via e-mail to Mrs. Astrid Bumberger, career@be-stf.de.